ROCKET HONORS KARL

Maxwell High was honored this year to have a foreign exchange student, Karl Rabe. The Forest Ives' were his American family. In Germany, his home is 20 miles from his school. To get there, which he did six days a week, it was necessary for him to ride his motorcycle, then a bus, then a train, and then walk the last mile. Karl tells us that gas costs $1.30 a gallon in Germany. His father farms 360 acres in the lowlands near Holland.

In school here, Karl was a straight A student, except for a B in English. Karl participated in football, wrestling, chorus, FCA, and many other activities.

We have enjoyed having Karl with us this year and hope he has learned as much from us as we have from him. In the hope of better world understanding among all men, we dedicate this year's ROCKET to Karl.

MUSICAL ROULETTE

Rubber Duckie, You're the one!

Worm your way out of this one!

We fix flats!

America forever!

Jr. High Barbershop Quartet.

What a bod!

On March 16, 1971, Maxwell students turned out a "Musical Roulette" for the annual swing show. The roulette wheeled 'round and 'round revealing all sorts of vocal, instrumental, and dance groups, along with skits and pantomimes. There was a range from hilarious to serious, with an overall effect of total enjoyment. The production was made a success by Mr. and Mrs. Hartzer, who directed it, and the many students who contributed their efforts both on and off stage.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"ME AND MY SHADOW"

"THE CAST"

Top Row, M. McCord, K. Rabe, M. Hartley, G. Grifeth, Miss Moore(director)
N. Fuss. Front Row, R. Smith B. Stoneberg, J. McBride, S. Ives, S. Christie, N.
Hubbard, S. Senter.

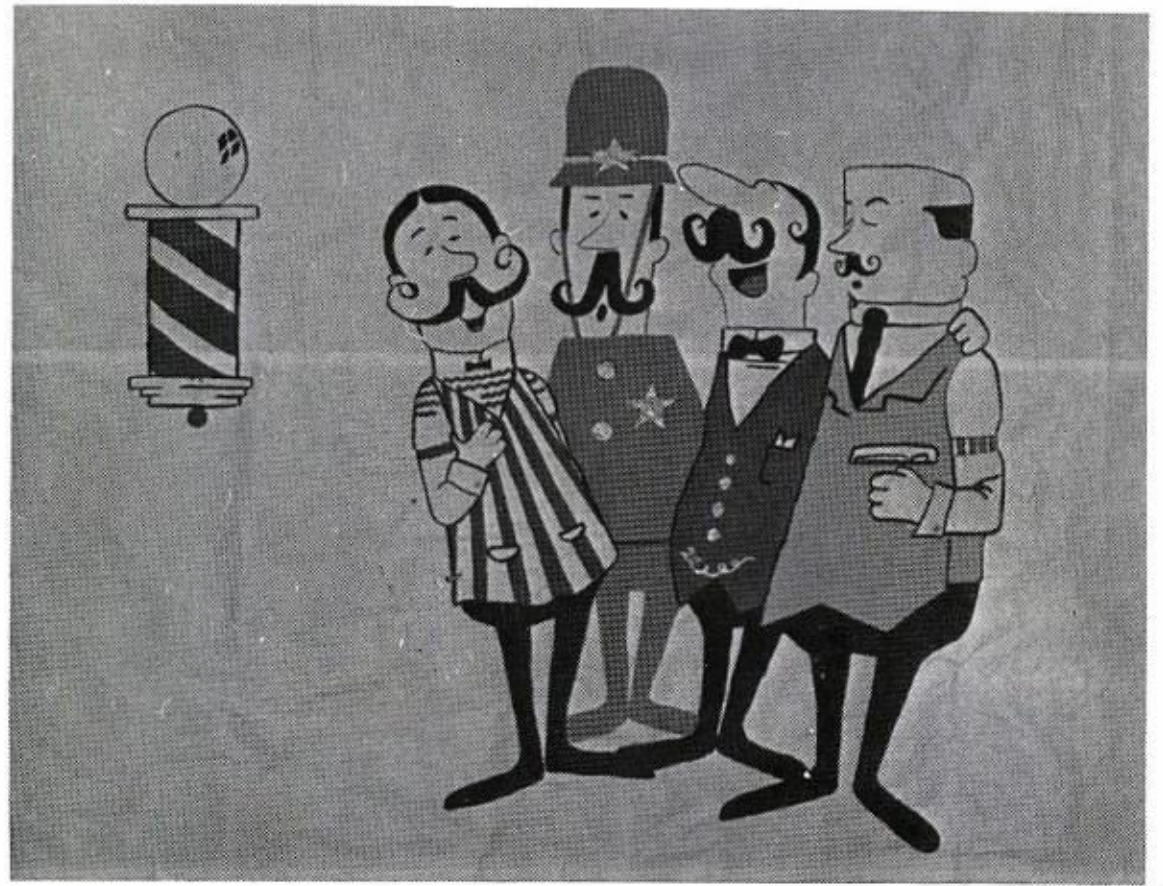

Get him George!

ME AND MY SHADOW

Arleen Harington, wife of a young attorney, leaves her husband for the weekend. On his way home from taking Arleen to the bus station, Roy saves a mysterious East Indian girl from being run over by a train. Realizing that Roy has saved her life, the girl declares that because of his act, Roy is her "Master" and she is his "Slave." Although the boys try to convince her that her reasoning is wrong, they can't get her to leave Roy's side.

The story becomes more and more complicated as Roy's unwanted mother-in-law, his nosey neighbor, and his unhappy maid continually come in at the wrong time. What happens after the appearance of a mysterious would-be murderer, a kidnapping, and the return of a jealous Arleen is anyone's guess.

THE GAY NINETIES

Last minute details

One more up!

Teamwork saves the day!

Rod and Mary hanging one on!

You should hear them sing!

On Saturday, May 8, 1971, Maxwell's seniors, juniors, and their faculty went back to the "Gay Nineties" for their junior-senior banquet and prom. After the banquet, the servers sang "Bicycle Built for Two". The senior class prophecy and will were read. The dance followed, with music by The Royal Funk. Unofficial activities after the dance included two movies at the Camelot Theater in Nevada, "Kelly's Heroes" and "Dirty Dingus Magee," and a breakfast at Barb Lowe's home. About the other unofficial activities . . . ?

This is Man Country!

Enjoying the meal

A night to remember

THE ROYAL FUNK

ACTIVITY SNAPS

Maxwell enjoys the carnival held to purchase the new stage curtains.

Hurry up Denise!

Block that kick!

Get that baby!

This is too dirty for me, I'm going home.

I felt the football team did an outstanding job the past year. It was the best season Maxwell has had since 1951. Despite being outsized by every other team, we were never out of any game. I was very proud to be associated with this group of men as they were a great asset to the school.-Coach Sullivan

FIRST ROW: J. White, K. Rabe, N. Swalwell, B. Stoneberg, E. Viers, J. Zeiser, J. Rooney.
Second Row: S. Ives, M. Kresse, M. Mohler, D. Cairns, R. Pritchard, Mr. Sullivan.

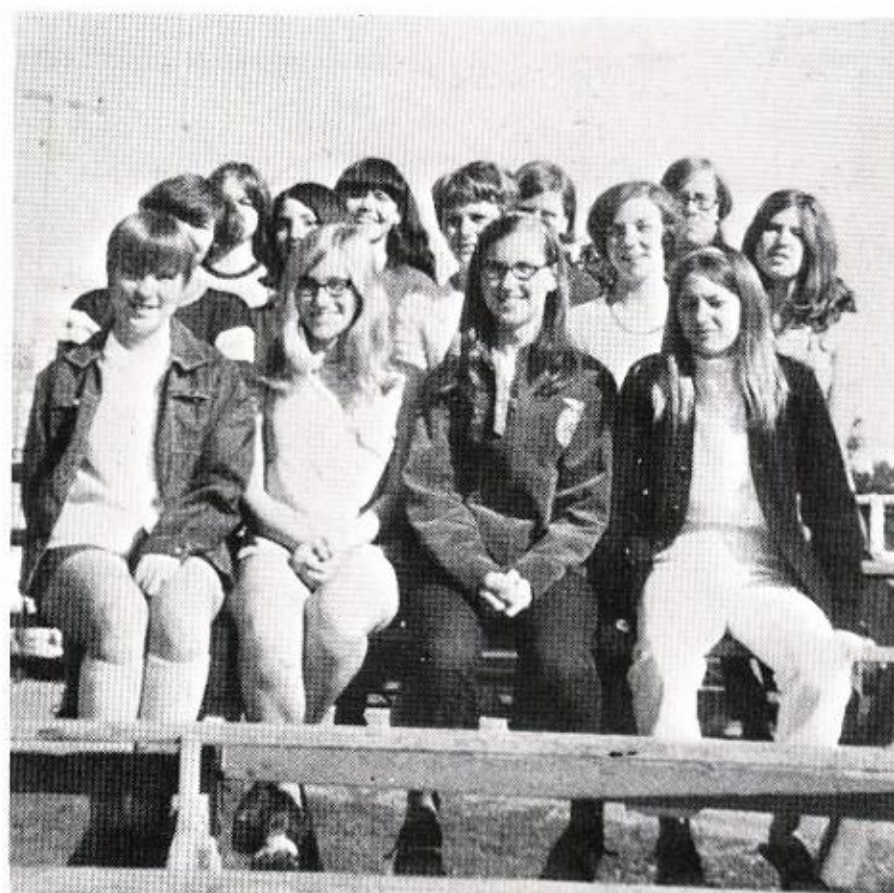

The wrestling team set a school record by winning their first meet in the school's history. Despite only having ten men out I felt we did a real good job. Some grapplers who did outstanding jobs the past year were Steve Ives, Bill Stoneberg, Marion Kresse, and Randy Pritchard. Randy held his own against every opponent he wrestled. Bill and Steve did great jobs despite extremely tough competition. Marion improved greatly throughout the year, and I expect him and the rest of the wrestlers to do a real good job next year. TRACK

FIRST ROW: J. Zeiser, L. Coles, G. Meyers, M. Kresse, Mr. Sullivan, M. Teigland, D. Whaley, K. Thompson.

Though there wasn't a great turnout, all track men did well, with some outstanding performances. Kevin T. broke the school pole vault record three times, now at 10'9". He also won the event at the conference meet and the King's Relays. Dean W. placed second in the conference in the 880 at 2:15.

The baseball season started off great as thus far we have won our first five games. Dean Fuller has already hit three home runs, and Tom Logsdon has done an outstanding job on the mound. Many other team members are hitting well this season. With good teamwork and a little luck, we could have a good shot at winning the conference.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Maxwell Chapter of the National Honor Society was established in October of 1970. Eight members from the junior and senior classes and one provisional member from the sophomore class were chosen by a faculty council of five. They were installed at a high school assembly by the Collins Honor Society. Members were chosen for their qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

The Honor Society helped sponsor the high school Christmas party with the FTA. During Earth Week, the group led a clean-up project on the highways leading from Maxwell. A rummage sale was held as a money raising project.

In April, three new members, one new provisional member, and an honorary member (Karl Rabe) were installed.

School campaigns and elections were held for student council members and officers in September. Marlene Ratzlaff, secretary, was appointed at the first meeting.

The student council sponsored the Homecoming dance, with the "County Farm" playing. In November the group organized an experimental youth center at the V. F. W. Hall. In February, the council raffled a stuffed dog at the carnival, held to raise money for new stage curtains. A bake sale to raise money and a revision in the dress code were included in their activities also.

Cindy and Barb at district

FHA'ers try to sell their wares at winter carnival.

The Future Homemakers of America continued this year to be a thriving organization. In June, Mrs. Zehnder and Barb Lowe attended a two-day district president's workshop at ISU. In August, the district planning meeting was held at our school to plan for the district meeting which was then held here on September 19. Barb Lowe presided and Cindy Sandquist was installed as district music chairman. Our local chapter made preparations for the installation and operated a concession stand.

In December, the chapter sponsored a Christmas dance. They also sponsored a Christmas door decoration contest.

In February a pie sale was held to raise money. The group also had a boutique at the winter carnival.

Three girls attended state convention at Hotel Fort Des Moines in March. The chapter took a field trip in March to the Woodward State Hospital and School, taking cupcakes along for the kids there.

During FHAWeek in April, a Teacher Appreciation Day was recognized. In May a slave sale was attempted to earn money. The chapter also conducted a very successful drive in May for Multiple Sclerosis. The year was completed with the installation of '71-'72 officers following a mother-daughter potluck supper.

Robertson, S. Claussen, R. Myers. THIRD ROW: J. Myers, D. Fuller, K. Rabe, C. Hand, B. Dolph, M. Smith.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes huddle group was organized in the fall of '70. Officers elected were: Captain, Kevin Thompson; Co-captain, Mark Teigland; Secretary-Treasurer, Steve Ives; Bulletin-Chairman, Dean Whaley. The FCA has been active in school this year, participating in the school carnival, selling food at the Rockette Relays, and having a bake sale. We encourage more people to come to the FCA meetings. The current membership includes about 25 boys and 5 girls.

SOLOISTS

This year has been busy and eventful for the chorus. The chorus sang at the Veterans Day assembly November 11. Time was spent preparing for the Ta-Ma-Ja Vocal Festival, held November 21 at LDF. The mass chorus practiced all day and presented a concert that evening. The mixed chorus also performed at the Christmas program and at the Swing Show.

Much time was spent preparing for a concert of contemporary music held the afternoon of April 18 at C. Y. Stephens Auditorium in Ames. The concert was a part of the Midwestern Percussion Symposium. Practice sessions with the other schools involved were held the evening of April 15 and the morning before the concert.

Solo and small group contest was held in April. Two of the soloists, Lorrie Appell and Steph Caple, received I's. All other soloists received II's. The madrigal also received a I.

Rounding out the year, the girls' chorus sang at baccalaureate.
